

"War in Ukraine, a challenge for legal normality"

Organizers : Yuliia Chystiakova, Aurore Chaigneau

Date: 12 May 2023, salle 352, Bâtiment Veil, RER Nanterre-université

Format: online that uninterrupted fate, Link: meet.google.com/mqj-fkia-uhb

Languages: French, English

1st panel 9.00-10.45 CET: Functioning of justice during the war: national judicial system and ECHR

Boris Babin – Kyiv National university of Taras Shevchenko

The ECtHR, Crimea and Russia's withdrawal from the CoE

Nataliia Glinska –National Academy of Law science

Criminal procedure in time of war

2rd panel 11.00-12.45 CET: Relations between Ukraine and the EU in the context of the Russian-Ukrainian war

Yuliia Chystiakova –Nanterre University

Challenges for the EU in the aspect of Ukrainian membership negotiations

Roman Yedeliiev – Educational and Scientific Institute of International Relations

Reforming Ukrainian labour legislation in the context of European integration

Marjolaine Roccati – Nanterre University

Relations between Ukraine and the EU: crossed challenges

3rd panel 14.00-15.45 CET: Adaptation of Ukrainian private law to the conditions of war

Yullia Akymenko– National University "Odessa Academy of Law"

The practical issues of implementation of Civil Code during the martial law

Anatoliy Kostruba– Precarpathian National University

The force majeure and war: Supreme court practice in contract law

Aurore Chaigneau – Nanterre University

The implementation of private law

4th panel 16.00-18.00 CET: War crimes: peculiarities of legal qualification and prosecution

Svitlana Andreichenko – International Humanitarian University, Odesa, Karl Franzens University of Gratz

Pro special international tribunal

Anne-Laure Chaumette – Nanterre University

International Criminal Court and Universal competence of European courts

Nataliia Hendel – Geneva Academy of international humanitarian law and Human Rights

Ukrainian cultural values as an object of war crimes